

Country Joe McDonald's "Monthly Open Mic"

Every 2nd Friday in 2010!

Feb 12, 2010 at 7 PM at the BFUU

Musicians Note: Lottery sign-up for performers begins at 6:30 pm sharp!
Get your name into the hat! Pick your time spot when your name is called.

The legendary "Country Joe" is best known for his 1969 Woodstock performance, social justice & anti-war songs, Woody Guthrie & Florence Nightingale tributes, & Berkeley community spirit.

<http://www.countryjoe.com/>

Hali Hammer will Host & Sing Out!

Hali is a delightfully engaging performer and an accomplished singer-songwriter. She will carry you along to the places she's traveled, and share the lessons she's learned.

Hali Hammer's MySpace: www.myspace.com/halihammer

Our "Featured Artist" for FEBRUARY 12, 2010: T

Recent Berkeley High graduate T (aka Theresa) brings a unique voice to the singer-songwriter genre, retelling stories from her life as a touring musician, world traveler, and independent spirit. Drawing from such influences as The Beatles, Nirvana, Neil Young and Pixies, multi-instrumentalist T has entertained audiences all over the world with her mature songwriting, powerful voice and dedication to her musical craft. T is currently recording her new album, Hey Liebe, but you can check out her previous recordings at myspace.com/SpaceBagBand

Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists (BFUU) Hall

1924 Cedar Street (at Bonita St)

Wheelchair Accessible: Yes!

1 block west of MLK Way / 2 blocks east of Shattuck in North Berkeley

Suggested donations of $5 - 10 will benefit the BFUU & cover expenses.

No one is turned away for lack of funds! Note: Volunteers are needed to post flyers, set up & take down chairs, staff our snack bar, wash dishes, etc. Pot luck & beverage donations welcome! Together, we can accomplish what we cannot do alone!

Sponsored by the BFUU Social Justice Committee

<http://www.bfuu.org>